ORDER:-

In the reference 1st read above, Sri M. Kameswara Rao, Husband of Late Smt. Vasantha Lakshmi, former CDPO, Allagadda and Vemulawada has filed a review petition before the Government against the orders issued by the Government vide G.O.Rt.No.235, Women Development, Child Welfare & Disabled Welfare (Estt) Department dt.13/07/2005 wherein it has been ordered to recover an amount of Rs.60,166/- as the amount involved in two disciplinary cases in respect of the charges held proved in the inquiry from the admissible gratuity amount of Rs.1,23,750/- in respect of Smt. Vasantha Lakshmi former CDPO, Allagadda and Vemulawada.

2. In the ref.2nd read above, the Director, Women Development & Child Welfare Department, Hyderabad was requested to furnish records with parawise remarks

3. In the ref.3rd read above, the Director, Women Development & Child Welfare Department, Hyderabad has furnished her remarks alongwith record

4. The review petition filed by Sri M. Kameswara Rao, Husband of Late Smt. Vasantha Lakshmi, former CDPO, Allagadda and Vemulawada is examined carefully with reference to records concerned and observed as follows:

- a) In respect of charge of not disbursing an amount of Rs.31,500/- while working as CDPO Husnabad, the delinquent alleging that her successor has taken away the file and records and her explanation accordingly is not acceptable. As rightly pointed out by the Enquiry Officer, the delinquent failed to submit any explanation regarding non-disbursement of an amount of Rs.31,500/-, and the fact that the delinquent has not denied having received the sanctioned amount. Therefore, this charge is proved beyond doubt and the amount ordered for recovery holds good.

- b) As for as the 2nd charge, on failure to disburse the TA amount, in view of the explanation of the DO which at this belated stage cannot be proved or established, this charge deserves to be dropped
- c) As for the charges of shortages and misappropriation while she was working as CDPO Allagadda, failure to exercise proper supervision is established beyond doubt. However, the Enquiry Officer has clearly mentioned that the concerned assistants have agreed that they are responsible for the shortages and therefore the Director shall conduct enquiry and fix responsibility on the Junior Assistant Sri K V Sessaiah and person in charge of stocks also in the light of the findings of the Enquiry Officer.
- d) Similarly the charge of shortage of Government cash at Allagadda, the irresponsible behaviour of Sri Ameer Ali Baig, then Junior Assistant against whom memos had been reportedly issued by CDPO, RDD & PO, ICDS cell, Kurnool repeatedly. The Commissioner, Women Development & Child Welfare, Hyderabad should enquire into all these charges against him and also as to how he was promoted when memos had reportedly been repeatedly on him issued for various irregularities including absconding from duties etc Commissioner, Women Development & Child Welfare, Hyderabad shall cause an enquiry and take further action.
- e) The Commissioner, Women Development & Child Welfare, Hyderabad to conduct enquiry against the then Junior Assistant/Senior Assistant stores in charge concerned and take further appropriate action against them as per rules.

5. After careful examination, it is felt that 50% of Rs.60,166/- i.e., Rs.30,088/- would be justified. Therefore it is hereby decided to recover an amount of Rs.30,088/- from the admissible gratuity in view of gravity of charges which are held proved and the review petition. Hence the review petition filed by the applicant in the ref.1st cited is hereby partly allowed and the orders issued by the Government in G.O.Rt.No.235, Women Development, Child Welfare & Disabled Welfare (Estt) Department, dt.13/07/2005 are accordingly modified.

6. The Commissioner, Women Development & Child Welfare, Hyderabad is requested take further necessary action in the matter and send her compliance report to the Government in the matter.
